

Chorister Profile – Anthony John

Anthony was born on the 6th December 1960 in Llwynypia in the Rhondda Valley. He first attended Cwmclydach Junior School before completing his state education at Tonypandy Grammar School.

He is married to Julie and they have two children. On leaving school he started his working life as an apprentice mechanical engineer. He is currently employed by the NHS as a Specialist MH Nurse for looked after children. His hobbies include reading, cycling, walking the dog, DIY, travelling skittles and bowls.

Anthony joined Cambrian Male Voice Choir in 2010. His reason for joining being "I enjoy singing in a group". His favourite song is Anthem. To date his most memorable moment with the choir was "At the Millennium Stadium for the Ryder Cup Concert. I particularly liked Katherine Jenkins performance".

How does Anthony view his membership to the Choir? He explains, "Making new friends, camaraderie, meeting people, singing in various venues". He describes the choir as "fun, social, entertaining and friendly".

Our thanks to Anthony for providing the above information and allowing us to use it on this website.
