

Chorister Profile – David William Evans

David was born on the 10th November 1950 in Wattstown in the Rhondda. He first attended school at Blaenclydach Infants School before completing his state education at Blaenclydach Secondary Modern School. His first job on leaving school was with the co-operative. He is married to Jan and they have a combined total of seven children/grand children.

He lists his hobby as Cambrian Male Voice Choir and his love of singing. He joined the Choir in 1996 because he had a very deep passion for singing.

He lists his favourite choral songs as "Gwahoddiad, American Trilogy and Softly".

His most personal memorable moment centres on a successful competition for Cambrian Male Voice. He recalls, "Winning our first Welsh Choir of the Year competition at Burnham on Sea and thinking how proud I was, to be part of our choir". David's favourite venue where he has performed as a chorister is Canada.

Has being a member of Cambrian had any effect on him over the years? He replies, "I think if I was to say I wish I had joined the Choir when I was in my 20's that explains how much passion I have for this Choir". In generally describing Cambrian Male Voice Choir he says "Simply a brilliant group of men".
