

Chorister Profile – David James Phillips

David was born on the 16th December 1951 in Gilfach Goch. He attended Hendreforgan Infants School in Gilfach Goch, before completing his state education at Y Pant Secondary Modern School in Pontyclun. Having left school his first occupation was as an apprentice machine tool fitter. He is now a funeral service operative in Tonypandy.

David is married to Denise and they have two children and one grand child. He lists his hobbies as the Choir, golf and watching rugby.

David joined Cambrian Male Voice Choir in 1989. He is a member of the second bass section. He claims, "he needed something after finishing with rugby", as his reason for joining the choir. Of the extensive repertoire to select from, his favourite musical item is "Anthem" from the musical Chess.

David has enjoyed many moments with the choir, but one tour that stands out for him is the first overseas tour to Canada. He has chosen Vernon as his favourite venue.

David reckons one of the main attributes he has developed by being a member of Cambrian Male Voice Choir is, "Being able to sing with confidence in a group". To sum up Cambrian in five words is difficult, but his description is, "For a small choir, great"

Our thanks to David for providing the above information and allowing us to use it on this website.
