

Chorister Profile – Alan Victor Jones

Alan was born on the 6th August 1947 in Clydach Vale in the Rhondda Valley. He attended Cwmclydach Junior School followed by Blaenclydach Secondary Modern School. On leaving school Alan was first employed as a butcher's assistant. He is now employed as a welder. He is married to Margaret and they have two children and three grandchildren. He lists his hobbies as gardening, classic cars and motorbikes.

Alan joined Cambrian Male Voice Choir in 2010. He gives his reason for joining as "I like singing and enjoy socialising with the choir". Of the wide and varied repertoire sung by the choir Alan has chosen the famous Welsh Hymn Gwahoddiad, as his particular favourite. Being a relatively new member of the choir, when he was asked to describe one memorable moment so far with the choir Alan replies, "First time on stage". He lists St David's Hall in Cardiff as his most favourite venue where he has sung with the choir.

Even at this early stage Alan recognises the impact the choir has had on his life. He regards his membership as one where he is able to "enjoy the social evenings and entertain people".

How does he generally describe his membership of the choir? Alan confidently replies "Absolutely brilliant".
