

Chorister Profile – Glyndwr Price

Glyn is the most senior member of the choir. He was born on 31st March 1921 in 2 Bush Houses Clydach Vale. As a boy he attended Cwmclydach Boys School and from there, went to his first employment as a miner. He remained in mining all of his working life. He is married to Olga and has three daughters. He is happily retired and this year he and Olga celebrate their 68th wedding anniversary. Glyn's hobbies include driving and the Cambrian Choir.

Glyn joined the choir in 1973 as a top tenor. He recalls his reason for joining stemmed from the pleasure he gets from singing. One of his memorable moments, he fondly remembers with the choir, is taking part in the 2008 Choir festival competition in Torquay.

He lists singing at The Royal Albert Hall as his favourite venue where he has performed with the choir.

When asked what being a member of Cambrian Male Voice Choir has meant to him, Glyn answered with one word – 'comradeship'. He describes the choir as 'a good bunch of choristers'.
